

What is RemedyUserGroups.com?

Simply put, this site is going to be for the Remedy User Groups throughout the world. We know there are other resources available (mattreinfeldt.com, arswiki.org, arslist.org, etc.), but what's really missing is a place for local RUGs to host their information, their presentations, their schedules, etc. That's the primary function of this site.

Also, it can be used as an informal "networking" arena. We are a small community, when you look at us from the "big picture", so it makes sense that we should get to know one another and then try to maintain those relationships and connections. Hopefully this site will assist in that through the forums, blogs, and other tools at hand.

Lastly, we will allow job listings to be posted here. If you are interested in being able to post your jobs here, please contact us for details on how to do it.

Enjoy the site!
